

Luxury program

Are you in town for a few days, interested in German history, happy to indulge yourself culinarily, and on the lookout for outstanding events? Unwrapping History will draw up a luxury program completely tailored to your wishes:

- guided tours,
- hotel and restaurant reservations,
- ticket reservations (jazz, theater, and much more),
- current art exhibits and literary readings, as well as
- presentations on contemporary history.

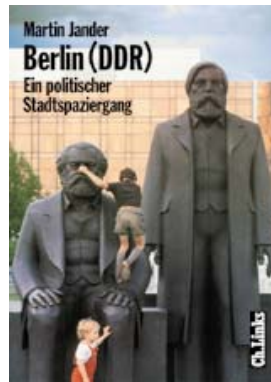

Martin Jander, born 1955, historian, journalist, and tour guide

Prices

Basic tours: 15 € per person. For 5 people and above there are group discounts.

Special tours and luxury programs:

Prices negotiated according to expense.

The latest book from Unwrapping History:

Berlin (DDR) - Ein politischer Stadtspaziergang.

12,90 Euro (in German only)

Order it on the Internet: www.linksverlag.de

Unwrapping History

Dr. Martin Jander
Schustehrusstr.: 23
10585 Berlin

Telefon/Fax: +49-(0)30-34707745
E-Mail: martinjander@t-online.de
Web: www.unwrapping-history.de

Guided Tours

Berlin — Potsdam

The Brandenburg Gate undergoing renovations 2002

Unwrapping History

Discover the places in Berlin and Potsdam that tell you about German history

www.unwrapping-history.de

Unwrapping History

Unwrapping History means getting at the background story. Unwrapping History is meant for people who want to explore Berlin, Potsdam, and modern German history. We give tours both in English and German. We offer:

- basic tours of the most important sites that tell you about German history,
- topically oriented special tours for all kinds of groups
- and individually configured luxury programs for visitors eager to explore the Berlin experience.

The new dome of the Bundestag, Germany's parliament, on top of the old Reichstag building

Basic tours

Each era of German history has left its imprint on Berlin and Potsdam. Offering a variety of basic tours (2 1/2 hours each), Unwrapping History can take you to the most revealing historical sites:

- Berlin in the 19th and 20th century
- Potsdam since the 18th century
- Berlin, the capital of Nazi Germany
- East Berlin, capital of Communist East Germany
- West Berlin during the Cold war
- New: June 17, 1953 — the workers uprising in East Berlin

Willy Brandt sculpture in the foyer of the Social Democratic Party headquarters in Berlin-Kreuzberg.

Special tours

Are you interested in exploring a very special topic on German history while visiting Berlin/Potsdam with a student class (college and high school) or in the company of friends?

Are you organizing an international conference and looking for an expert to accompany you to sites and memorials off the beaten track? Unwrapping History offers to:

- arrange thematic special tours based on your wishes,
- put you in touch with contemporary witnesses and experts on history and politics in Berlin and Potsdam.

Memorial at the site of Rosa Luxemburg's murder in Tiergarten.